THE STATEMENT OF FAITH

1. Verbal Inspiration of the accepted Canon of the Sacred Scriptures as originally given. (2 Tim. 3:16, 1 Cor. 2:13.)
2. The Tri-Unity of the Godhead. (Matt 28:19, Gal. 3:20.)
3. The creation, test and fall of man, as recorded in Genesis; his total spiritual depravity and inability to attain to divine righteousness. (Rom. 5:12, 18.)
4. The Saviour of men, the Lord Jesus Christ, conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, very God and very man. (Luke 1:30-35, John 1:18, Isa. 9:6.)
5. The Gospel of the Grace of God, how that Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again the third day for our justification. (1 Cor. 15:1-4, Rom. 4:25.)
6. The salvation of Sinners by Grace alone, through faith in the perfect and sufficient work of the Cross of Calvary, by which we secure remission of sins. (Eph. 2:8, 9, Heb. 9:12, 22, Rom. 5:1.)
7. The bodily ascension of Jesus to Heaven. His exaltation and His personal coming for His Church. (Jno. 14:2, 3, 1 Thess. 4:13-18), and His rule of the Nations of the earth for one thousand years. (Zech. 14:4, 5, 9, Isa. 11:1-4, Rev. 20:6.)
8. Water Baptism of Believers by immersion in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Acts 19:5; 10:47, 48; 8:37, 38.)
9. The Baptism with the Holy Spirit as an experience subsequent to Salvation, with the Scriptural evidence; namely, speaking in tongues. (Acts 8:14-17; 10:44-46; 2:1-4, Gal. 3:14, 15.)
10. The Gifts of the Spirit as enumerated in 1 Corinthians, Chapters 12 to 14 being exercised and practiced as manifest in the early Church.
11. The Spirit-filled life, a life of separation from the world, and the perfecting of holiness in the fear of God as an expression of Christian faith. (Eph. 5:18, 2, Cor. 6:14, 2 Cor. 7:1.)
12. The healing of the body by Divine Power, or Divine Healing in its many aspects as practiced by the early Church. (Acts 4:30, Rom. 8:11, Cor. 12:9, Jas. 5:14.)
13. The Lord's Memorial, commonly called Supper, for Believers. (1 Cor. 11:23-32.)
14. The Eternal Life of the Believer. (Jno. 5:24; 10:28), and the Eternal Punishment of the Unbeliever. (Mark 9:43-48, 2 Thess. 1:9, Rev. 20:10-15.)
15. The Reality and Personality of Satan. (Job 1:7, 2 Cor. 11:14.)

Editorial

How can I justify my life?

This is a question which arises to confront every thoughtful person who pauses to ponder the purpose of his existence. Before I can logically determine the plan and purpose for my life, I must first be sure that I have life. The Bible states in 1 John 5:12: "He that hath the Son hath life." If I do not have Christ abiding within, I do not have life. Life, real life is in Jesus Christ, and when I receive Him I receive life. Now, having received Christ, I must seek to justify His gift of life.

When we turn to the Bible for an answer, we read in Acts 13: 22, that David was a man after God's own heart. Verse 36 declares that he served his generation by the will of God.

I, too, have a generation to serve. A generation of people existing in anguish of soul and perishing in hopeless despair. They do not know the Prince of Peace and the Author of life everlasting. To justify my life I must meet the challenge and need of this my generation. This responsibility can fall on no one else. Christ is the answer. Christianity, centered in Jesus Christ, isn't just another way of life, it IS life.

In our Burning Lamp this year, we want to present how we at Full Gospel Bible Institute believe we fit into God's great plan for winning this generation to Christ.

Bob Shaw

Do You Realize . . .

that ½ of the world's population have never heard the name of Jesus?

that 2000 languages are spoken in the world today?

Only 200 languages have a translation of the whole Bible?

1000 have no portion of the Word of God at all?

that 94% of all preachers minister to 9% of world populace?

We, the English speaking people comprise the 9%; yet see how unchristian our "Christian" land is. Can you realize the state of the rest of the world!

Communism, Catholicism, and other world religions are striving to engulf these multitudes in their "damnable doctrines."

Are you going to give them the Truth, before they believe a Lie?

Do You Realize . . .

The importance of having the right Faculty to teach the Word of God? A true teacher must not only give what he believes but also live it.

We, the students of F.G.B.I., can truthfully say how thankful we are for men and women of God who have dedicated themselves to the teaching and living of the Word of God.

Faculty and Staff

Rev. Glen S. McLean

President of Full Gospel Bible Institute.

To have a part in Bible School is both a privilege and a great responsibility. I do feel that one of the most effective things I can do to meet the great need and challenge of my day and generation is to have a part in helping to prepare young men and women as soul winners, workers, leaders, ministers, and missionaries for the work of the Lord. However, we of F.G.B.I. are very conscious that we cannot do this work alone. We need the prayers, help, and co-operation of God's people to accomplish the plan and purpose He has for each detail of the work of Bible school.

Glen S. McLean

Rev. Lorne O. Pritchard

Principal of Full Gospel Bible Institute

The PURPOSE of my being connected with Bible School is best described in Paul's words to Timothy. "The things that thou hast heard . . . the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." I Timothy 2:2.

The PLANS which I am following are found in the words of the Apostle in his letter to the church at Philippi, "holding forth the word of life" Philippians 2:16.

My PLACE is this great harvest field is no greater than any other servant of Christ. My responsibility is to serve my generation by the will of God, so that the generation to come, might know the Lord. I have a place here at Bible school so that by all means I might save some.

Lorne O. Pritchard

Rev. ALBERT D. MARSHALL
Eston, Saskatchewan.

Typing is an asset to every Christian whether he is a pastor, worker, or lay person. It helps him to keep neat, legible notes and articles to which reference can be made at a later date. It also helps to show his best in all official correspondence. At F.G.B.I. it is our aim that in all things we might better equip Christians to serve the Lord. I am indeed thankful for the privilege to be able to have a part in training students to be effective, efficient witnesses of Christ. It is also a privilege to be of service to the Lord through my work as secretary and registrar. I want to do MY best for Jesus.

Pearl Kroegel

Rev. ROBERT T. WILSON
Eston, Saskatchewan.

Instruction is within the economy of the Church of Jesus Christ. God Himself is implored by man "Teach me to do Thy will, O God" Psalm 143:10. Jesus Christ's ministry is rife with illustration of a teaching ministry; while of the Holy Spirit, it is recorded "He will guide you into all truth" John 16:13. It is not strange then, that when Christ ascended into heaven, He gave among other gifts to His Church, Teachers. Teachers have been divinely appointed by God to transmit His truth from generation to generation. Adam and Eve taught Cain and Abel; Ezra taught the people so that they understood the will of God; and Paul and the Apostles taught in synagogues, houses and open air cathedrals. Realizing God's command "Thou shalt teach" Deuteronomy 6:7, recognizing there is a greater condemnation for unfaithfulness in this order, and confessing untold blessing to teachers who commit to faithful men the truth of the Gospel, so we strive.

AD Marshall

Miss PEARL L. KROGEL
Eston, Saskatchewan.

The command of Jesus to spread the Gospel to all nations is a challenge to every believer, thus every MINISTRY and METHOD should be used. It was while I was engaged in Pastoral work that I realized the MINISTRY of teaching could be a METHOD of Evangelization. Paul who had a ministry of teaching instructed Timothy to commit that which he had learned to faithful men, who could teach others also, thus this method would fulfill the MOTIVE in Paul's life. His MOTIVE is, as ours should be, "to be all things to all men that by all means I may save some" I Corinthians 9:22. Thus whether I minister at F.G.B.I., Bible Camps, or pastoring a Church in the summer months my Motive is to use this Ministry and Method to win others to Christ.

From earliest times music has been a part of true worship for it is a means of giving vent to the soul's devotion. I am thankful for the musical talents which the Lord has given to me. To the best of my ability I am endeavouring to transmit to the students something of what I have learned in not only the technical points but also the spirit of music. It is my hope that they in turn will use what they have learned to lead others into the knowledge of Christ. It is my conviction that in so doing the Word of God shall be honored. In I Chronicles 25:7 we read that Heman's family and others were "instructed in the songs of the Lord" and also on instruments. For what purpose? "For the service of the House of God."

Marjorie Thunberg

Rev. WILBERT E. CROWDER
Eston, Saskatchewan.

All God's people are called to be labourers in the harvest field. The position as business manager differs not from any other call of service. I recognize I am not my own, but belong to God. In order for me to bring any praise to God for any position I hold, all service I render must be by the enablement of the Holy Spirit. So we being many are one body in Christ. Let us wait on our ministering to do it as of the ability that God giveth. Providing things honest in the sight of all men is a field of service that can truly be used for the salvation of souls. To this I dedicate myself with the full realization that it is not by might nor by power but by His Spirit.

JR Burnside

Mrs. J. DONALD THUNBERG

In Matthew 18:14 Jesus plainly stated, "It is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish." God made this scripture a living reality when He called me to the life-time service in working with children and young people.

Sunday School, Daily Vacation Bible School and Children's Camps play a vital part in the lives of our children today. My basic aim as a children's worker, is to reach them, teach them and use them for Christ. If we don't USE them as children, we're bound to LOSE them as teenagers. According to Matthew 18:5, children ARE important. Jesus said, "Whoso shall receive one such little child in My Name receiveth Me."

God has shown me the POTENTIAL POWER UNLIMITED in the vision and stamina of our youth. Ecclesiastes 12:1 proclaims that people are to be reached and held in the days of their youth before the evil days come upon them and the years draw nigh when they will have no pleasure in the things of God.

Rev. FRANK J. KOSICK
Calgary, Alberta.

Each year Rev. Frank J. Kosick, pastor of the Calgary Full Gospel Church, comes for a brief visit. This is always a time of inspiration and blessing. This year, once again, Bro. Kosick's teaching on Prayer and the Gifts of the Holy Spirit was greatly appreciated by the students. His spirit-filled ministry in our devotional times was a great blessing as we saw and heard the operation of the very things he taught.

Rev. ARTHUR E. SHEPPARD
White Rock, B.C.

Rev. Arthur E. Sheppard is a dynamic young man with Evangelism as his passion. Each year he comes from the coast, where he and his family reside, and gives thorough inspirational studies on Personal Evangelism, Theology Proper and Ephesians. His own fervent spirit encourages the students in worship and praise.

Rev. Elwood L. McRae has a deep interest in the training of workers for active service. His part in this training is not lengthy but practical to the needs of the students.

The varied studies he gives are appreciated by all as an essential part of our learning. We look forward to his coming every year.

Rev. ELWOOD L. MCRAE
Regina, Saskatchewan.

Once again this year the students were capably instructed by Rev. Irvin W. Ellis. His ministry in Christian journalism is known to all through his editorials in the End Times' Messenger.

Here at Bible school we learn the fundamentals of arrangement and presentation of gospel truths through the printed page.

We appreciate this practical training.

Rev. IRVIN W. ELLIS
Calgary, Alberta.

Miss RUTH L. MARTIN

One of my favorite verses is Psalm 37:5, "Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass." It is wonderful to be able to commit my way unto the Lord knowing that He knows what is best for me.

It is my desire that my way will always be committed to the Lord and that I may serve Him in whatever way He wills.

Mr. J. DONALD THUNBERG
Eston, Saskatchewan.

The knowledge of God's love and grace is the greatest blessing of my life. Thus I count it a privilege to have a place of service in Bible school. In daily duties as assistant cook the presence and help of the Holy Spirit can be very real. My aim is to know the will of God in my life, and as a faithful steward do all my work as unto Him. "And whatsoever ye do in word and deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him." Colossians 3:17.

Do You Realize . . .

That F.G.B.I. is geared to develop the whole person? Students acquire food for their souls in the study of the Word; spiritual growth through prayer and testimony; zeal and vision from Christian exhortation and fellowship; poise and friendliness through group participation; a will to work and skill in common tasks through gratis duties; and a joy in serving Jesus.

Valedictorian

The tragedy of this generation is not Communism. It is not that a Roman Catholic has been elected President of the United States. It is not even that the United Nations is a tottering power. Nor is it that our nation is so morally degenerated that it is on the verge of collapse. The tragedy of this generation is, "For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's." Philippians 2:21. Men are seeking after their own pleasures, lusts and desires and want nothing to do with God.

This is the tragedy of the generation, and is the same as it has been for centuries. This sin has plagued the human race since Adam. This inspires hatred and lust in men's hearts and causes nations to tear at each other's throats. This has caused the rise of Communism. The world situation screams at every human being that he CAN NOT get along without God! Yet the tragedy remains, "...all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's."

The ONLY answer to this tragedy is for people to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, to accept Him as Saviour and Lord of their lives. But HOW are the masses going to be convinced that Jesus Christ is the answer?

The world needs men!—men who are wholly given over to Jesus Christ, who are motivated by the throb of His Holy Spirit. It will take DEDICATED MEN to convince the world!

In 1961, there are nineteen young people going out from Full Gospel Bible Institute with a basic knowledge of God's Word and a desire to be fully yielded to the Spirit of God. We have an awesome burden on our shoulders, "...For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required:..." Luke 12:48.

The challenge is before us. The responsibility is ours. Overcomers! The urgency of our generation DEMANDS that we be those DEDICATED MEN who will convince the world that Jesus Christ is the answer to this tragedy.

How can we ask for a challenge?
When it lies before our eyes.
The Lord will soon be coming,
And Oh! I hear their cries.

Chorus

"Life, life, oh life," they cry.
While Jesus whispers "Come."
Held captive by the wicked one,
Whom we have overcome.

When testings come without, within,
Then more than conquerors over sin,
We shall through Christ, the battle win
And find the victory.

"THE WILL OF GOD WILL NEVER LEAD YOU WHERE THE GRACE OF GOD WILL NOT KEEP YOU."

Psalm 16:11 "...in thy presence is fulness of joy..." I do thank the Lord for saving me when I was a child; for His protecting hand upon me, and His leading in my life. I thank Him for the privilege of attending F.G.B.I. It was here I learned of the Grace of God and of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit—Truths which have brought "fulness of joy" to my life. My utmost desire in life is to so live that others may know that I love Christ.

Lena Klimut

Psalm 89:1 "I will sing of the mercies of the Lord forever; with my mouth I will make known thy faithfulness to all generations." Truly the Lord has been merciful to me; He has done so much throughout my life. Although we fail the Lord many times He will never fail us. When I think of all the Lord has done for me, how can I give less than all to Him? I feel God's hand upon my life and pray that He will enable me to faithfully fill my place in the harvest field.

Grace Walker

Mark 11:24 "What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them and ye shall have them." How many times has this been proven true in my life! Truly, "The Lord is not slack concerning His promise." II Peter 3:9. He gives us more than we deserve or can ask for. What a wonderful Lord we serve! As an Overcomer, I want to serve the Lord the best way I can. In order to be an Overcomer, we must overcome. "Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?" I John 5:5.

Rosemary Walker

I truly thank the Lord for His Word I have always found that God's Word is quick and powerful, and it does pierce to the very heart of man. I want to be in the place where the Lord can use me to bring glory to His name. The same Spirit that drove Jesus into the wilderness is the One I want to drive me into His service to do mighty exploits for Him.

Lloyd Anderson

I am thankful for the reality of Jesus Christ in my life. I have found David to be true when he said in Psalm 145:3 "his greatness is unsearchable."

I count it as a privilege to be able to study God's Word for it is "quick, powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword" Hebrews 4:12. His Word is the only thing that will convince and convict sinful men. Because of this, it is my desire to commit my life completely unto Christ. In Psalm 37:5 we read, "Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass."

Eunest May

Considering the tragic conditions in the world today, I thank God for the thrilling answer He has provided in the Person of Jesus Christ. As I view the vast harvest field of human souls I realize the enormity of the job set before me. My desire and prayer is that I might unreservedly yield my body in reckless abandon to this great cause—the cause of Christ. Luke 9:24 "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it."

Walter Baker

"Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us" I John 4:10. I thank God for His love which sent His Son into the world to die for my sin.

Since I accepted Christ as my Saviour I have been very conscious of His hand upon my life. His leading brought me to Bible school where His word has become real to me. I thank Him, too, for baptizing me with the Holy Spirit.

My prayer is that I will be found faithful to my Lord who has done so much for me.

Alex Gammie

This winter I have thoroughly enjoyed the studies of God's Word. One book which has taken on new meaning to me is Ephesians. As we studied this book it blessed my soul to think that the exceeding greatness of God's resurrection power is to us and for us! I realize as I go forth this spring that I need this power to sustain and help me preach the Word with boldness and with the scriptural witness of signs following (Mark 16:15-20). May God give me "the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him" Ephesians 1:17.

Noel McNeill

The Lord is good to me. He gave me a Christian home. He saved me, filled me with His Holy Spirit, and gave me a desire to serve Him. He's done so much for me; I must give my all to Him. "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." Philippians 1:21.

I want to be fortified with a knowledge of God's Word, saturated with the drive and throb of His Holy Spirit, then motivated into aggressive action for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Willard L. Mitchell

Jesus teaches this seeming paradox, "Whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it."

I have found that only in Christ is a vibrant, joyous life obtainable. My desire is that my life may be lost in Christ, that I may do His perfect will, as he enables. Only then will my life be successful, as God measures success. The fullest, richest, most satisfying life is hidden in Christ.

These words summarize my goal, "Let me burn out for Thee, dear Lord, burn and wear out for Thee."

Eileen Paulson

I Timothy 4:12 states: "Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

Paul's exhortation to Timothy has challenged me to also be a true example of a believer. With the enabling power of the Holy Spirit I want to glorify Jesus in every aspect of my life.

How can I do less when Jesus my Lord has done so much for me? In Him I have real lasting peace, joy, and strength to meet each day. "Take the whole world but give me Jesus."

Linda Nagel

The Saviour that I've accepted for my Redeemer and Substitute is not only the God of the past but of the future. He has saved me from the past and is preserving me for future blessings.

I must keep looking unto Jesus who is the Author and Finisher of our faith. Who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame and was set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

I want to look to Him, for in Him dwells the fullness of joy. Psalm 16:11.

Gregory N. Watton

I can praise the Lord and say with Paul in Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is in the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." I am thankful that salvation is for all. In Ephesians 2:8, 9 we read, "For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God. Not of works . . .". I want to thank the Lord for the many blessings that He, by His grace and mercy, has given me.

Oscar Ness

I can truly say "Amen" with Paul in Ephesians 2:13 when he declared under divine inspiration, "But in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ." I was "made nigh" at a very early age and can now see God's guiding hand on my life in public school, high school and in Bible school.

The desire for my life is expressed in Philippians 2:15, "That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among who ye shine as lights in the world."

Garth Knapp

As I leave Bible school I have but one desire and that is "to be what He wants me to be." God has been so gracious to me, that I can do no less than give to Him my very best to use as He sees fit.

A song writer has penned these words, "I do not know what lies ahead, the way I cannot see; yet One stands near to be my Guide, He'll show the way to me."

How I thank God that though the future is unknown to me, I can put my trust in Him.

Marjorie Bentley

"I will guide thee with mine eye" Psalm 32:8. I know of no better eye to be guided by than that of our loving Lord. I am thankful that I have a Guide in which I can trust. The words of this chorus help me express my feelings:

Christ is not a disappointment,
Every longing in my breast
Finds in Him complete fulfillment,
He has brought me into rest.
I have tested Him and proved Him,
More than a friend or life to me
Christ is not a disappointment
He is everything to me."

Truly, Christ is everything to me.

Barbara Welsh

Being raised in a Christian home I accepted Christ as my Saviour at the age of seven. I count it a privilege to have been able to attend F.G.B.I. and study God's precious Word. II Corinthians 5:3 "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves—but our sufficiency is of God." Christ has truly proved to be sufficient in all things to me. My desire is expressed in John 9:4 "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is yet day: the night cometh when no man can work."

Shirley Lahnert

It is with a thankful heart and with praise on my lips that I, too, can testify with the Psalmist in Psalm 40:2-3, "He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock . . . And He hath put a new song in my mouth."

Not knowing what the future holds, I must say with Paul in II Timothy 1:12, "For I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day."

James Shultz

In my first year of Bible school, I chose Phillippians 4:13 as my verse—"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Truly the Lord has been faithful. He has not only saved my soul and filled me with his Holy Spirit but filled my life with new hope, joy and peace; Christ not only is my Saviour, but has also become my Lord and Master.

As we go forth to serve Him, I want to be found faithful in His service and walk worthy of the vocation where-with I have been called.

Virginia Penner

Working with boys and girls is her aim and delight. As secretary treasurer for our Happy Hour clubs she does a fine job of keeping things in order. Ginny seeks to help others and thus glorify the Lord.

Margaret MacLean,

Washing clothes keeps Margie busy two days a week. She loves skating and is an avid hockey player in the girls' team. She faithfully teaches a class of beginners in the Eston Sunday School.

Robert C. Smith,

Bob's cheerful and congenial personality is liked by all. Faithfully he shares his part of the burden on the India prayer band. An alert mind and ability to retain knowledge is very beneficial as he studies the Word.

Marlene Walton

Talented is the word for this young miss. Marlene plays the piano accordion and is often seen singing with her brother, Greg. Being very studious she is among the top in her class.

Clayton Brock

Clayton is usually found in the printing room, where he assists in the running of our printing press. He is devoted to his studies and we know the knowledge obtained here will assist him in future service.

Rodger Snyder

Considerate and studious is Rodger. He enjoys Happy Hour work with the Eston Primaries every Friday night. To know God best and to be found faithful therein is his aim in life.

Bea Gammie

Happily married, Bea lives in a cosy little trailer. Although busy with household tasks she does very well in her studies. Her trained and dedicated voice is a delight to hear.

Bob Stone

Bob is found busy in many activities of the school and is faithful in them all. His photography is a great asset to this yearbook. His calm consecration shows his desire to do his best for the Lord.

Joan Mattice

As nurse for the girls, Joan is very understanding and helpful. She is interested in her studies and loves research work on any Bible topic. We think she would make a wonderful missionary nurse.

Violet Neumann,

Florence Nightingale II—Vi is cheery, full of fun and very neighborly. Determination is very evident as she struggles faithfully at her accordion lessons. Her desire above all else is to be led each day by the Lord.

Milestones in Progress

When the Full Gospel Bible Institute was four years old, its buildings consisted of the two girls' dormitories and two faculty residences. The first class to graduate had four members. Sixteen had graduated at the close of the fourth term.

At the end of the eighth year the graduating total has increased accordingly and now numbers fifty.

The close of the twelfth term sees the Bible School, now with the boys' dormitory and the chapel. Ninety-two students have completed three years of study and are serving in widely varied fields.

Sixteen years have now passed into eternity. The total number of all the graduates to the present time has reached one hundred and sixty-seven. The commencement of the seventeenth year finds the third-year classroom and the dining hall on the grounds. The teaching outreach has also increased to include radio broadcasts by Rev. L. O. Pritchard. Literature, too, plays an important part in the spread of the Gospel; much of the basement of the boys' dormitory has been converted into a printer's shop.

167 students have now graduated from F.G.B.I.

Of these:

- 21% are pastors
- 10% are pastors' wives
- 9% are evangelists
- 8% are missionaries
- 52% are in general Christian service

The first student body had five teachers.

The present faculty numbers twelve.

Do You Realize . . .

THE IMPORTANCE OF PRAYER?

Jesus said in Matt. 9:37-39: "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest." The Bible teaches in Eph. 6:19-20, that we should pray for the ministers of the Gospel that they should receive utterance to speak boldly. We are also to pray for God to open a door of utterance. Col. 4:3. This in essence is what our prayer bands pray for, and as we view the closing doors around the world today, how much more we need to pray in the light of this knowledge.

The desire of our prayer bands is to see full time Christian workers who will dedicate their lives to the cause of spreading the Gospel to the World. Pray with us that we may be chosen to labour in God's great vineyard.

"To Know the Scriptures and the Power of God"

Dear Friend,

When telling you of the activities of the school in my last letter, I didn't mention one very important one...Prayer Bands.

You might ask me "Why are Prayer Bands necessary?" To this I can only say that they are not only necessary but are in fact an essential activity of Bible School life. There are so many millions in the world today that have never even heard the Name of Jesus! On top of this many missionaries are labouring in countries all over the world. Why should we just sit by and watch? We have a part of the responsibility to reach the lost with the gospel too. Our part is to uphold them in prayer.

Many students already have a burden for the people of a certain land. This enables them to have a part in reaching them. Others have not any definite area on their heart so Prayer Bands help to inform them of the needs world wide. By this the Holy Spirit can, and often does, direct them to a certain area of labour. In other words, Prayer Bands are really Missionary!

We form seven different groups and each group represents and prays for one geographical location. The areas are: Latin America; Europe; China, Japan, and Korea; Africa; India; Island World; and Home Missions. These groups meet weekly to discuss and pray for, the needs and victories in their area.

Prayer is not our only function although this is the main purpose. We keep in contact with the missionaries through the medium of letter writing. Just as an example, the Home Missions Prayer Band send out approximately one hundred and fifty letters each term to workers in the Apostolic Fellowship in Canada and workers of other groups as well. In their return mail the missionaries and workers list their needs so that we can pray more effectively.

Each Wednesday morning in our chapel period one of the Bands take the service. Through this they impart to the whole student body the needs of the field and burden of their hearts. I know that personally this aspect of F.G.B.I. has broadened my outlook and deepened my burden for the lost. Next year when you are here it will do the same for you.

Yours in Christ,

F.G.B.I. Student.

THE IMPORTANCE OF REACHING TEENAGERS

As we look at the tragic social, economic and spiritual condition of the world today we at once think of our teenagers — tomorrow's leaders. The kind of character that is molded in young lives today will determine the type of citizens of tomorrow. The major part of our teenage population take no thought of spiritual matters, thus they do not receive very much if any religious training. However, Satan works overtime to fill their pliable minds with his diabolical ideals and ambitions through the medium of debase literature, television and various forms of entertainment. Dare we sit idly by and watch our teenagers sink deeper and deeper into degeneration?

One of the main outlets for service in which about 30 students participate is the Happy Hour. This term they operated seven different clubs. Five cars are used every week to travel to and from the towns where the clubs are located. During the winter 4,200 miles are covered in this work. Each week an average of 75 to 100 students are reached with the gospel in this way and many accept the Lord as Saviour.

I can really say that working as leader of the Christian Teen Club has been a blessing to me. I know that I can speak for the other members of our team. Each week we have gone to meet with these teenagers to present Christ to them and sound Christian advice on practical living which they need so much today. We have enjoyed the teen enthusiasm in singing lessons and quizzes. Teen Kathy McNabb gives John 3:36 as her favorite verse and testimony, "He that hath the son hath everlasting life."

NOEL McNEILL

Each Happy Hour Club is a separate unit meeting once a week with its own leaders and teachers. The activities of the club include such things as choruses, quizzes, Bible lessons and special features. By special features we mean bringing different students who contribute a story, object lesson or new chorus. Each club has it's own contest which encourages the pupils to be punctual, regular attenders who bring their Bible and visitors, and know their memory verses. We are sure that God accomplishes much in the lives and hearts of the children who attend. This year about asked Jesus into their hearts.

"LIFE WITH CHRIST IS AN ENDLESS HOPE. WITHOUT HIM IT IS A HOPELESS END."

Student Council 1960-61

The Student Council is comprised of the student body president and a class president and vice-president from each of the three classes.

This body has the responsibility of some student activities such as outings, class functions, and recreation. This year we have promoted a memory contest on the Book of Philippians, quiz competitions between the classes, and organized recreation.

Our purpose is to pass on to the faculty the ideas and opinions of the students and to help maintain a healthy, Christian atmosphere in which to study God's Word.

Choir Tour

April to June, 1960, was a period of intensive travel and ministry throughout the western provinces for a selected group from the F.G.B.I. Choir, under the leadership of Rev. A. D. Marshall.

Witnessing

"Ye shall be witnesses unto Me."
Acts 1:8. Between April and October, many of the students of F.G.B.I. experience the joy of leading souls to Christ through personal testimony.

Camps & V.B.S.

During July and August about twenty-five per cent of the F.G.B.I. students form teams and labour among children and youth at Gospel Camps and Vacation Bible Schools.

Trends of the Times

MAN'S MODERN BABEL

Ezekiel chapter 35 predicts the day ..when trouble would increase between the Jews and Arabs. This is increasing.

Ezekiel chapter 37 predicts the return of the unbelieving .. JEWS to their land. Are they not returning?

Ezekiel chapter 39 predicts the fall Of Russia in the Land of Israel

'As it was so shall it be——' Matthew 24
It would seem that the 'Prophetic Word' is today the 'Pictured Word', ..so many events predicted in Scripture are ..NOW

BREAK IT UP!

Ezekiel chapter 36 predicts the rebuilding of the LAND of ISRAEL. This is being done today.

Ezekiel chapter 38 predicts the rise of RUSSIA. Russia is rising every day.

Jesus predicted wars and rumours of wars chapter 24. This trend is increasing.

'The last days perilous times shall come.'
Crime is increasing everywhere.

Paul predicted Religious Apostasy.

There shall be famines, pestilence and earthquakes to divers places.

Do these things not speak loudly today?
Prophecy proves the inspiration of the Bible.
How can you see and hear these things and not be encouraged to study prophecy?

Do You Realize . . .

That you are lost, perishing and condemned because you are sinner and because you have not received Jesus Christ as your own personal Saviour?

The Bible says, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way." Isaiah 53:6.

"All have sinned and come short of the glory of God" Romans 3:23. "There is none righteous, no, not one" Romans 3:10.

You are not a sinner because you sin, you sin because you are a sinner.

You must admit that you cannot save yourself.

Being baptized or confirmed will not save you. Joining a church taking communion, and doing the best you can will not save you. Self salvation is impossible. "Not by works of righteousness which we have done" Titus 3:5. "Not of works," "For by grace are ye saved through faith" Ephesians 2:8,9.

You must believe that Christ, and Christ alone can save you.

"Neither is there salvation in any other" Acts 4:12. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life: No man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." John 3:36.

You must receive Jesus Christ as your own personal Saviour.

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God" John 1:12. We receive Christ by believing and confessing. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Romans 10:9. "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Romans 10:10. "Now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." 11 Cor. 6:2.

Accept Him now, tomorrow could be too late!

Curriculum

A three-year course has been designed to provide the student with a comprehensive understanding of the English Bible and preparation for Christian service at home and abroad in accordance with New Testament principles.

THEOLOGY. A study of all the major doctrines of Scripture under the following divisions:

Bibliography—A study of the Bible as a Book.

Theology Proper—Names, Attributes, Covenants, and Acts of God.

Anthropology—Doctrine of Man.

Soteriology—Christology, Salvation, Propitiation, Redemption, Healing, etc.

Angelology—Angels, Demons, Satan.

Ecclesiology—A study of the Pauline Revelation of the Church.

Eschatology—Second Coming, Prophecy, Heaven and Hell.

BIBLE CONSTRUCTION covers the entire Bible and is a comprehensive study of each book of the Bible, emphasizing the outline purpose and main message of each. This gives a general knowledge of the Scriptures as a whole, laying a foundation for further study.

VERSE BY VERSE STUDIES in the Gospel of John, Books of Acts, Epistles of Romans and Ephesians, and expanded studies in Daniel and Revelation.

PERSONAL EVANGELISM is designed to equip the student for one of the most important forms of Christian service—how to win souls to Christ by personal contact, giving the best method of approaching and dealing with various classes and cults from the Bible and provides a valuable course in Scripture memorizing.

THE HOLY SPIRIT an extensive Bible presentation of the Pentecostal position relative to the BAPTISM in the Holy Spirit. Special attention is given to teaching the GIFTS of the Spirit, and the FRUIT of the Spirit.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION. This includes:

Pedagogy—A study of the principles of teaching.

Child Study—The examination of the characteristics and development of each age group.

Sunday School Administration—How to arrange and operate a successful Sunday School. Opportunities are given for practical work in Sunday Schools, Bible Clubs, Bible Camps, and Vacation Bible Schools.

CHRISTIAN EVIDENCE. A presentation of the many infallible proofs of the inspiration of the Bible and of Christianity.

CHURCH HISTORY. The history of the Christian Church from the days of the Apostles to our present day.

BIBLICAL INTRODUCTION. A study of the history of our English Bible.

TYOLOGY. A study centred around the Mosiac Tabernacle, showing how the Person and the work of Christ is revealed in the types and shadows of the Old Testament.

FALSE CULTS. A survey of the doctrines of the leading false religions.

HOMILETICS. A course on the preparation and delivery of sermons.

PASTORAL THEOLOGY. Studies in the life, problems and labors of a Pastor and Missionary.

DISPENSATIONAL TRUTH. Considering the Bible in the light of God's dealings in various periods of time.

MUSIC. Covers the rendering of Gospel music and song and the conducting of Choirs and congregational singing.

MISSIONS. The teaching of Bible methods, as applied to modern missions, with special time given to visiting missionaries and student prayer bands.

JOURNALISM. The teaching of basic techniques on how to write properly organized Christian material in keeping with the standards of our day.

BIBLE GEOGRAPHY. A study of the geography of the lands connected with the events of the Bible.

TYPING. A second and third year elective subject.

MODERN TOOLS FOR MINISTERS. An elective course in organization and filing.

CHAPEL DEVOTIONS. A time at the beginning of each day designed to develop the devotional life and ministry of the student.

SPECIAL LECTURES. Dealing with modern problems in visitation, counselling, etc., will be given by visiting faculty.
